

Participate in the Indiana Grown social media holiday campaign

Indiana Grown is continuing to highlight holiday gift ideas from Indiana Grown members. If you have a special deal or promotion to share, or a great gift suggestion to highlight, please contact Suzi Spahr at sspahr@isda.in.gov.

Be a part of the second annual Fantastic food fest

Indiana Grown is a proud sponsor of the 2017 Fantastic Food Fest taking place January 21-22 at the Indiana State Fairgrounds. All Indiana Grown members have the chance to reach thousands of potential customers attending the two-day event and do direct sales to the consumers. Several discount opportunities are available for members. Contact Jason Swathwood at jason@circlecitsexpos.com for more information.

Advertise in Farm Indiana at a reduced rate

Farm Indiana, a monthly farm-focused publication, is offering an exclusive reduced advertising rate to Indiana Grown members. Starting the first Monday of each month, members will have a chance to receive one-third off of a regular price full color quarter page ad in Farm Indiana's monthly publication. Members will have the choice between a six-month contact for $212.50, or 12-month contract for $187.50 monthly. For those interested in this opportunity, please contact the editor of Farm Indiana, Sherri Dugger, at 317-371-2970 or sdugger@aimmediaindiana.com.

Apply to ISDA's Certified Livestock Producer Program

Livestock, poultry and aquaculture farmers are encouraged to apply for the ISDA's Certified Livestock Producer Program. The program recognizes producers who are willing to demonstrate their commitment to the five areas of the program and to showcase their progressive practices, ethics and values. Winter training sessions begin Wednesday, Dec. 14. To register, please fill out an application form and contact Kimmi Devaney at 317-450-3570 or kdevaney@isda.in.gov.

Tell us about upcoming events in your area

We love helping our members and would like to start spreading awareness of events and opportunities in your local markets. If you have information you would like us to promote, please contact Suzi Spahr at sspahr@isda.in.gov or 317-407-2924.
