SMOKING GOOSE MEATERY

Located in downtown Indianapolis, Smoking Goose Meatery specializes in handcrafting slow cured and smoke meats, salumi and fresh sausages. The meatery cures and smokes its meat from healthy animals raised on independent farms in Indiana and neighboring states. Smoking Goose uses methods like seam butchering each animal, hand tying every piece and curing without any additional compound nitrates. As a USDA-inspected meatery, Smoking Goose works with restaurants, retail shops and wholesale accounts coast to coast. For more information, visit www.smokinggoose.com.
